Committee Meetings

Finance Committee

Bob Donato reported on the meeting held last Tuesday where the budget calendar was discussed. It was noted that over 75% of our budget is for salaries and benefits. They also discussed the affordable care act and the associated problems with complying with the regulations.

Community Relations Committee

Mike Whilden reported on the meeting held last week. Several new project ideas were discussed.

Facilities Committee

Mike Beatty reported on the last meeting where several topics were discussed, including Wheaton Field bleachers, the progress of the two roof replacements, summer projects, and the status of the school swap project with the SDA.
Professional Review Committee

Bob Donato asked for support on several clubs and the appointment of Mike Coyle to the Vice Principal position at Lakeside Middle School.

Superintendent’s Report

Dr. Moore introduced Sean McCarren as the student board member of the month.

Mr. Beatty congratulated Sean and the marching band for their composure during last Friday’s football game. He then asked Sean if he has heard about flipped classrooms. Sean responded that some of his classmates have them. He said some students like them and some are struggling with them. Mr. Beatty asked what he likes about the high school. Sean said he likes how the school cares about the orange and blue and each other.
